

INROADS

Continuing the Mission of Providing
Quality Internships for Students

Names New Chief Operating Officer

Michael T.
Holmes

ST. LOUIS, MO.— INROADS, Inc., the nation's largest non-profit source of salaried corporate internships, has appointed Michael T. Holmes as its new Chief Operating Officer (COO). Mr. Holmes will lead and manage a comprehensive array of services and programs for INROADS to establish the proper operational controls, administrative and reporting procedures, staff and systems necessary to grow the organization, ensure financial strength and maintain operational efficiency.

The Mission of INROADS is to develop and place talented underserved youth in business and industry and prepare them for corporate and community leadership. Founded in 1970, INROADS, Inc. is the nation's largest non-profit source of salaried corporate internships. INROADS has placed students in over 127,000 paid internships throughout its history, providing students with the skills and competencies necessary to be successful in advanced careers, and graduated over 25,000 Alumni into full-time professional and managerial positions with over 1,000 Corporate Partners. With over 35 offices throughout the U.S., Mexico, and Canada, INROADS has consistently been named one of "America's Top 10 Internships" for over 15 years. Currently, INROADS serves nearly 1,800 Interns and 230 Corporate Clients. Top Corporate Partners of INROADS include United Technologies Corporation, Deloitte Touché Tohmatsu, MetLife, Kaiser Permanente, KPMG International, Lockheed Martin Corporation, PricewaterhouseCoopers, MasterCard International, UPS, General Electric Company, CenturyLink, Inc., Google, Blue Cross and Blue Shield Association, Travelers Companies, Inc., TARGET Corporation, and AT&T Inc. To learn more, visit <http://www.INROADS.org>.

SAVOIR-FAIRE MAGAZINE

HIGHLIGHTING DIVERSITY IN BUSINESS FOR 16
YEARS

(855) 728-6473

